

Conflict Resolution for Disciples

Psalms 133

1. There are typical, yet _____ and _____ responses to conflict.
 - a. There are _____ responses.
 - b. There are _____ responses.
 - c. There are _____ responses.

2. Neither regeneration nor spiritual maturity erases _____ or the potential for _____ .
 - a. Resolving conflicts is _____.
 - b. Resolving conflicts is _____ the responsibility of those _____ in the conflict.
 - Identify the true problem or _____ of the conflict.
 - Remind yourself of the _____.
 - Go to the other person in a spirit of gentleness and humility, seeking to _____ the relationship.
 - Resolving conflicts sometimes requires the help of an _____ party.

- 1) The outside party should be a _____, committed Christian.
 - 2) The outside party should be _____.
 - 3) The outside party should be open, direct, and _____.
 - 4) The outside party should be _____ and positive where possible.
- Resolving conflicts is necessary so that the church can _____ on the work of the gospel.
 - Unresolved conflict often leads to _____.

Take Home Truths – Four Questions:

- 1) What is the _____ nature of the difficulty?
- 2) Is there an important _____ principle at stake?
- 3) What _____ character qualities is the Lord trying to develop in me through this clash?
- 4) Would the cause of Christ be _____ or hindered by my continuing to work _____ with this person?